Rule Clarification	12/1/2024	8/14/2024

Rule Change Intent

This rule change proposal is a language clean up to modify how the Licensed Officials Department interprets this rule in practice. By changing the language from "competitions" to "classes," it would reflect how we have enforced this rule in the past. For example, at a multi-breed competition, a Hunter judge is permitted to officiate Hunter Over Fences classes restricted to Morgans.

GR1005 Officiating Eligibility and Guest Cards

2. In ~~competitions~~classes restricted to entries of one breed, (i.e. Arabian, Morgan, Friesian), a judge licensed in a specific division (i.e. Hunter, Saddle Seat Equitation, Reining) may officiate the classes and sections at that competition in which they are licensed. In this case, a ~~g~~Guest cCard is not required, nor is a Special Judges ~~c~~Card, required for ~~recorded~~ judges licensed in a specific division in order to judge these classes.
